

Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between

00:00 Thu 7 Jan 2021 and
09:00 Thu 7 Jan 2021Snow and ice potentially leading to difficult travel conditions/*What to expect

- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths

Further details

A band of rain, sleet and snow is likely to push southeast across Northern Ireland on Wednesday night before clearing during Thursday. Away from some northern and eastern coasts, this will fall mainly as snow with accumulations of 1-2 cm possible. 2-5 cm of snow is possible on hills above about 150 m. Accumulating snow may well affect the Glenshane Pass.

Snow should ease, whilst probably turning back to rain, early Thursday. Regardless of snow accumulation, after several cold days, ice is likely to be relatively widespread on untreated surfaces.

Medium likelihood of low impacts
